KINGSWOOD-OXFORD SCHOOL
WEST HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT 1975

The Senior Class dedicates the 1975 edition of Retrospect to:

James A. Goodwin, whose enthusiasm, unfailing sense of humor, and genuine interest in his students have brightened this school for so many years. Whether leading the Mountaineering and Cycling Club up to Kilkenny Rock on his 3-speed (without walking!) or drilling his classes on the scale of hardness, Mr. Goodwin has been, above all, our friend, and we give him many, many thanks.

Mark T. Doyle, a teacher and coach liked by all who have had him in class or on the field, either on the cross country course or in the rifle range. His friendship has been appreciated by many in our class to the point where he has become known in their minds as a teacher second, a friend first.

retrospect— 're-trə- 'spekt

n. a review of or meditation upon past events
v. to refer back; reflect, to go back over in thought

PARADE

Robert Ollins

Hiding from death,
darting here and there.
So much to do,
can't get caught.

As the archer's bow,
the line taught and tense.
An arrow shot,
amidst an azure arena.

But as all,
at the mercy of one.
Can't hide always,
Life must end.

J. Lightning

You are the sunshine of my life
That's why I'll always be around
You are the apple of my eye
Forever you'll stay in my life

I feel like this is the beginning
Though I've loved you for a million years
And if I thought our love was ending
I'd find myself drowning in my own tears

You are the sunshine of my life
That's why I'll always be around
You are the apple of my eye
Forever you'll stay in my heart

You must have known I was lonely
Because you came to my rescue
And I know that this must be heaven
How could so much love be inside of you

You are the sunshine of my life
That's why I'll always be around
You are the apple of my eye
Forever you'll stay in my heart
